

Off-Campus Housing Search Weekend

Friday, July 17, 2009 through Tuesday, July 21, 2009

Georgetown's Office of Summer and Conference Housing invites you to stay on campus while conducting your search for off-campus housing. The dates that on-campus housing will be available at no charge are Friday, July 17, 2009 through Tuesday, July 21, 2009, with checkout at 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday, July 22, 2009.

This time provides an opportunity for you to conduct an intensive search for off-campus housing for the 2009-2010 academic year while staying in one of our residence halls. Participants will be placed with a roommate in a double occupancy room in a residence hall. Sophomore transfers are required to live in on-campus housing and should not plan to participate in Search Weekend.

Space is limited, so it is advisable for you to make your reservation as soon as possible. It is wise to plan to stay for several days, although you might find something sooner.

In lieu of a security deposit, a valid credit card number (Visa or MasterCard only) is required and will be charged only if: 1) the room key is not returned, 2) excessive cleaning is required, 3) any combination of the two. The charges will not exceed $100 and will be processed within 45 days of the resident's departure date.

If you are interested, please complete and submit the Search Weekend Reservation Form by Monday, July 6, 2009. Rooms will be assigned on a first-come, first served basis.

The Office of Off-Campus Housing Referral Services (OCHRS) actively solicits listings of rentals and makes them available through its Web page: <http://och.georgetown.edu>.

OCHRS serves as a "listing service" only and does not inspect or recommend any specific properties. We recommend that you peruse this page in preparation for your visit so that you can be prepared to begin your search early Saturday morning.

We wish you good luck in your housing search. Please return your room reservation form to the address listed below.
